ABOUT US

Lukistama Tax Consultant is an individual company that provides professional services engaged in taxation and accounting services. Being the best consultant and business partner is our main vision by providing the best, quality service in accordance with applicable regulations.

We are supported by a team that has experience in the field of taxation and accounting for more than 10 years handling national and multinational scale companies both as professionals in companies, tax consulting offices and public accounting firms.

Founder

I Putu Yogi Suara, SE., BKP is a registered tax consultant at the Directorate General of Taxes with a C tax consultant certification based on KIP-6733/IP.C/PJ/2020.

He completed his Diploma III in Accounting in 2009 at the Bali State Polytechnic and in 2011 completed his Bachelor of Accounting at Mercu Buana University, Jakarta.

During his career, he has worked in tax consultants and national and multinational companies.

Tax Services

Consultation

We offer consulting services based on our understanding and interpretation of tax regulations.

Compliance

We help settle tax obligations starting from calculation, deposit and reporting and help minimize potential fines.

Review

Our review services are in the form of liability reviews and reconciliation between books and notifications as well as calculating potential taxes that may arise.

Inspection

We help prepare and provide advice, refute the examiner's findings until the issuance of the tax assessment letter.

Judicial Review

Our review assistance services start from submitting requests, providing advice to issuing a review decision letter.

Objection and Appeal

We accompany clients in the objection and appeal process starting from the submission of the application to the issuance of the decision letter.

Book-keeping Services

Bookkeeping is one of the obligations that must be fulfilled by taxpayers in fulfilling tax obligations. In addition, bookkeeping is the basis for calculating the amount of tax liability.

Apart from providing tax services, we also provide bookkeeping services which include the preparation and review of financial statements.

Training Services

Tax training is one way to increase knowledge and understanding of tax provisions and to find out about changes in tax regulations that have an impact on the operational and business activities of taxpayers. Therefore, we provide in-house training services related to taxation with topics that are tailored to the needs of our clients.

The in-house training topics that we offer include:

Tax General Provisions

Income Tax

Value Added Tax

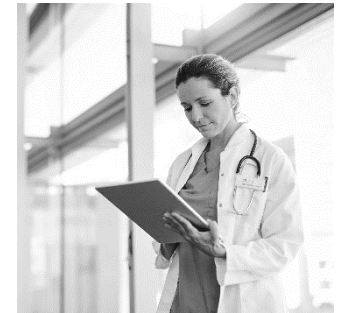

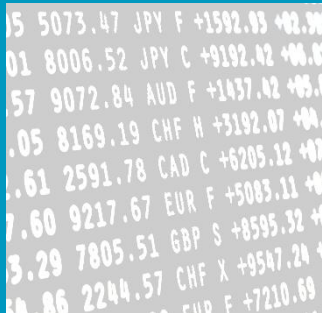

Tax Management, and others

Our Experience

We have experience providing satisfactory services to our clients who have broad industrial backgrounds such as life insurance, building management, trade, pension funds, digital marketing, hotels, hotel management services, transportation services, contractors, food and beverages, manufacturing, plantations, restaurants, hospitals and securities firms.
